 Defendant.)

On January 21, 2010, the Court held a telephone conference with the parties on plaintiff's Motion to Quash the Subpoena Duces Tecum served by defendant on William G. Cownie (Doc. # 1).

Defendant shall serve plaintiff with a subpoena describing the documents defendant is requesting that plaintiff produce. Within a reasonable time after service of the subpoena, plaintiff shall serve defendant with his written response, specifying the documents he is prepared to produce and setting forth any objections he may have and shall promptly mail to defendant a copy of the documents he indicates he has agreed to produce. In addition to written objections, plaintiff shall provide defendant a privilege log describing all responsive documents plaintiff is withholding from production on account of any claim of privilege.

Plaintiff shall be entitled to the reasonable costs incurred in responding to the subpoena, including copying and mailing costs. Accordingly, plaintiff's Motion to Quash is hereby DENIED (Doc. # 1).
